

Advancing Colorectal Care: Our Specialty

The following Terms and Conditions MUST be agreed to when submitting an abstract to the 2021 ASCRS Annual Scientific Meeting.

Agreement to Register

I affirm that if my abstract is accepted for either an oral or ePoster presentation, I will register for the 2021 Annual Scientific Meeting and pay the corresponding registration fee based on my membership.

Failure to Present

I, as the Presenting Author, understand that if I accept to present this research for either an Oral or Video presentation and I fail to register for the meeting, and do not designate an alternate Presenting Author, myself and all co-authors will not be allowed to submit to the ASCRS for two years and the DCR for the next 12 months.

Permission of Authors

I, as the Presenting Author, will take responsibility for the content of the submitted abstract, and have the permission of all co-authors to submit this abstract to the meeting.

Previously Presented Abstract

I, as the presenting author, understand abstracts accepted by the ASCRS will be eligible to present their abstracts at the ASCRS Annual Scientific Meeting as long as they have not presented/published prior to the abstract submission.

Agreement to Provide Manuscript

I understand that if my abstract is selected for presentation, I am required to submit my manuscript to the DCR by the given deadline date. The only oral presentations that do not need to submit a manuscript are General Surgery Forum, Research Forum, New Technology and Quick Shots.

Publish as Submitted

I understand that all author names including credentials, the abstract title and abstract body will be published as submitted to the ASCRS Abstract Center.
