American Society of Colon & Rectal Surgeons
LA JOLLA, CA
January 28-29, 2022

ESTANCIA LA JOLLA HOTEL & SPA

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Whether in the private practice office, operating room, hospital or boardroom, colorectal surgeons are leaders and need to hone their skills to be successful. The American Society of Colon and Rectal Surgeons (ASCRS) Leadership Program has been developed to engage the top 100 leaders in colorectal surgery in creating and sustaining a culture of lifelong leadership. ASCRS seeks to empower society members to become better leaders in all aspects of their professional life.

LIMITED OPPORTUNITY

This opportunity to interact face-to-face with leaders and future leaders of colorectal surgery is limited to just three industry sponsors. Sponsors receive category exclusivity and three attendee registrations included with your support.
